

Semi-structured Interview for DSM-5 Personality Functioning

 Joost Hutsebaut

Updated date: May 6, 2022

 An abbreviated version of this protocol was published in Frontiers in Psychiatry in Apr 2021

Assessment of ICD-11 Personality Disorder Severity in Forensic Patients Using the Semi-structured Interview for Personality Functioning DSM-5 (STiP-5.1): Preliminary Findings

DOI: 10.3389/fpsyt.2021.617702

Detailed protocol

And here's the STiP-5.1 and manual.

Related files

 stip-5.1_brief_manual.pdf

 stip-5_1_english_translation.pdf

How to cite: (Readers should cite both the Bio-protocol preprint and the original research article where this protocol was used)

1. Hutsebaut, J. (2022). Semi-structured Interview for DSM-5 Personality Functioning. Bio-protocol Preprint. bio-protocol.org/prep1656.
2. Hutsebaut, J., Weekers, L. C., Tuin, N., Apeldoorn, J. S. P. and Bulten, E. (2021). Assessment of ICD-11 Personality Disorder Severity in Forensic Patients Using the Semi-structured Interview for Personality Functioning DSM-5 (STiP-5.1): Preliminary Findings. Frontiers in Psychiatry 0(0). DOI: 10.3389/fpsyt.2021.617702

Copyright: Content may be subjected to copyright.